

Leadership Coaching Certificate Program Application

Cohort XIII - Please see brochure or website for dates

Thank you for considering the Leadership Coaching Certificate program. We're gratified that you want to commit your time to a disciplined practice for enhancing your leadership, your coaching skills and your engagement with diversity.

Please answer these simple application questions and return to John Ramerman in time to meet current deadlines.

Leadership Coaching Certificate program

_____		_____
First name		Last name
_____		_____
Title	Organization	# of years in role
_____		_____
Street Address 1	Street Address 2
_____		_____
City, ST	Zip
_____		_____
Phone, primary	E-mail, primary
_____		_____
Phone, backup	E-mail, secondary

Your background (brief description; please include resume):

Education / degree(s):

Previous leadership, coaching and/or diversity training:

Why are you interested in attending the Leadership Coaching Certificate Program?

Please return this application via e-mail or USPS to:

John Ramerman
 Associate
 64 Commercial Street
 Rochester, New York 14614
 john@ramermangroup.com

The faculty of the course will review your application and contact you to schedule an interview.

The Leadership Learning Collaborative beliefs:

- We believe that effective leadership skills and competencies can be learned and developed.
- We believe that the coaching discipline provides a powerful adult learning platform for the developing effective leader.
- We believe that leaders are most powerfully developed through being coached, being coachable and knowing how to coach others.
- We believe that the journey to effective leadership must include personal insights derived from one’s reflection on and engagement in diversity and social justice issues.